

FIREARM LICENSING AUTHORITY

Highlights of the Firearms Act

Appropriate Fees and Validity of Licence, Section 44

(1) ...the appropriate duty payable to a Collector of Taxes shall be;

- (d) on every Firearm User's License...etc...Three thousand dollars: and
- (e) on every Firearm User's (Employee's) Certificate, six hundred dollars.

(4) The appropriate duty shall be payable in respect of the period commencing with the date of grant of the licence or certificate and ending with the next succeeding 31st day of March, and thereafter shall be payable in respect of each financial year in which the licence or certificate is in force and on or before the 30th day of April in that financial year⁶

⁶ NOTE: The FLA will soon introduce a revised renewal-schedule based on the firearm holder's birthday. As well, the firearm booklet will be replaced with a plastic card, similar to your Driver's Licence.